

IHS Juniors Group Election 2025 - call for nominations

The IHS Juniors Group currently has five vacant positions. New members will be elected through an online ballot to be held before the IHC 2025 in São Paulo, Brazil, in September. All Junior IHS members may vote in the election. The term of office is 4 years.

More information about the IHS Juniors Group can be found here.

Nominations must be made using the official Nomination form which can be downloaded by clicking here.

Requirements:

- Candidates must represent either their country of origin or country of current workplace. Important note: New candidates must represent countries other than: Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Peru, Spain and United Kingdom, since these countries are already represented by Junior Group members. If there is more than one candidate for the same country, only the candidate who receives the highest number of votes can assume one of the vacant positions. If two candidates representing the same country receive the same number of votes, current Juniors Group members will vote for their preferred candidate. In case of a draw, the winner will be selected by the IHS Executive Committee
- Candidates must have been an IHS Junior member for at least 1 year before the election nomination deadline (Junior eligibility: under- or post-graduate students (including but not limited to medical students and PhD students) or medical doctors training to become a specialist. For medical doctors alternatively within 3 years of obtaining medical doctorate or academic post graduate degree or specialist certification, whichever was obtained latest, up to 15 years post-MD. For other academic groups alternatively within 6 years of obtaining latest academic degree and within 15 years of primary qualification)
- Candidates must continue to be eligible for Junior membership for at least 2 years following the election
- Candidates must be proposed by two IHS members (standard or junior members)
- Candidates must receive at least 5% of the total number of votes during the election to join the Group

The deadline for nominations is Monday 21 July 2025, 23.59 BST (London, UK)

Interested candidates should return the form and submit a supporting statement for joining the Juniors Group and a photograph (both to be circulated to all IHS juniors during the election). Additionally a CV is requested. For more information please contact Carol Taylor.
